“Implementing a performance management system has never been easier.”

As a Microsoft native application, Teamflect is intuitive and easy to implement. Just to be safe, we offer comprehensive implementation support, extensive tutorial libraries, and personalized end-user training.

“Teamflect offered to train my end users for me. I was able to do that on my own but the fact that they were willing to jump on a call and train was very much appreciated.”

Barbara Tonelli

Director of Enablement, Align HCM

100-200

“The training and the learning curve have been so great with Teamflect’s built-in tutorials and the videos.”

Tim Spearin

Director of Org. and Community Impact, Gas South
